Privacy Policy

Website Policies

For your protection and the protection of The KIDS IN THE SPOTLIGHT, inc. ("KITS") We have instituted the following Privacy and Website Policies. By making use of this website, you agree to be bound by all of the policies contained therein. If you do not agree to these policies, please do not make use of the website.

Privacy Policy

KITS respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it. It is not necessary to reveal your identity or any personal information to visit www.kitsinc.org.

Use of Cookies

KITS uses cookies to track the number of people who visit our site from certain other websites and utilize our website. The cookies we use do not personally identify individuals by their name, email address, health status, or any other personal attribute.

Some general information about visitors is automatically collected, including the domain from which you access the Internet, the web browser you use (such as Google Chrome), the date and time of the visit to our site, and the pages that are visited. This information is used for statistical tracking purposes only and to help us improve our website and provide visitors with a positive browsing experience. This information is only compiled in aggregate, so that we know how many people are visiting our site each day, how long people spend viewing our site, which pages are visited most, etc.

This information is connected to your donation history, used to contact you, but never released to an outside entity in any way, unless you request that we do so (see the "Personal Information" section below). Most web browsers automatically accept cookies but provide an option for blocking the acceptance of cookies.

Personal Information

Some areas of our website allow you the option to enter personal information. These may include charitable donation forms, requests for materials or information, subscriptions to email communication services, surveys or feedback forms, and email links to KITS departments or individuals. If you voluntarily choose to provide personal information, it may be viewed by various people at KITS in the process of responding to your online request. If you elect to receive regular email communications from KITS (such as an electronic newsletter subscription), you will always be provided with an "opt-out" method so that you can unsubscribe at any time.

If you choose to provide KITS with personal information, we will never share, rent, trade, sell, or otherwise release this information without your consent, except required to do so by law.

Opt-Out Unsubscribe from Communications

We respect your privacy and give you an opportunity to opt-out of receiving announcements of certain information. People receiving KITS notifications may opt-out of receiving any or all communications from KITS or from a future third-party partner of KITS by contacting us here at www.info@kits.org.

Security

KITS makes extensive use of technologies and techniques to help protect the integrity of the personal information you provide to us via the Internet. Still, you should be aware that electronic communications may not always be secure, despite all precautions. If you are concerned about providing sensitive information, you may wish to do so via phone, regular mail, or a personal consultation, rather than electronically.

Outside Links

The KITS website may contain links to outside websites that are not owned or controlled by KITS. We cannot be responsible for the privacy protections provided by sites outside of the KITS site, even if they are linked to our site. A link to an outside website, company, or organization in no way constitutes an endorsement or approval of that site, information, service, or organization, either outright or implied, and KITS is not responsible for content on outside sites.

The COPPA Requirement

Below we summarize potential instances of information collected and outline how and when we will provide guardian, parental notice, or seek parental consent. When we collect personal information from a child under the age of 13, In the event we discover we have collected data from a child inconsistent with COPPA's requirements, we will either delete the information or immediately seek the guardian or the parent's consent for that collection.

Note to Parents and Guardians

The KITS website is not directed to children. KITS encourages parents to monitor their children's use of the Internet when viewing the KITS website. Please do not allow children to post any personal information about themselves, including without limitation, their names, ages, phone numbers, and addresses.

We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen (13). If you are a parent or guardian of a child under the age of thirteen (13) and believe he or she has disclosed personally identifiable information to us, please contact us at www.info@kits.org. A parent or guardian of a child under the age of sixteen (13) may review and request deletion of such child's personally identifiable information as prohibit the use thereof.

When you use our website, you voluntarily give us certain information. This information can include your name, profile photo, posts, comments, the email address you used to sign up, and any other information you provide us.

California Privacy Act

Right to Request Access to or Deletion of Personal Information: You may have the right under the California Consumer Privacy Act to request information about the collection of your personal information from KITS, or access to or deletion of your personal information. If you wish to do any of these things, please visit here or contact Customer Service.

No sale of personal information. KITS has not sold any personal information of donors, as those terms defined under the California Consumer Privacy Act.

No Discrimination. KITS will not discriminate against any consumer for exercising their rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act.

Conditions of Use, Notices, and Revisions

If you choose to use KITS communication pages, your use and any dispute over privacy are subject to this Notice and our Conditions of Use, including limitations on damages, resolution of disputes, and application of the law of California. If you have any concern about privacy at KITS, please contact us with a thorough description, and we will try to resolve it. Our business changes constantly, and our Privacy Notice will change also. You should check our websites frequently to see recent changes. Unless stated otherwise, our current Privacy Notice applies to all information about you and your account. We stand behind the promises we make, however, and will never materially change our policies and practices to make them less protective of customer information collected in the past without the consent of affected customers.
